1. Constanta (Rumania)

This is a repair base for submarines. At present there are three submarine shelters under construction. Some 400 technicians are employed here.

2. Varna (Bulgaria)

Varna is being developed as an operational base for submarines. Submarines of the 1000-ton type are under construction here. There are 750 specialists and technicians of the former German Navy employed in the shipbuilding yards and in the development of the submarine base.

3. Pomoriye (Bulgaria)

Pomoriye is being developed as a large submarine operational base. A number of submarine shelters are under construction, with the assistance of 1,360 German specialist workers, many of whom during the war were employed on the construction of the submarine shelters at Saint Nazaire. Large repair yards for surface vessels of a small type have been observed here.
